Art Unit: 2827

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as being non-statutory because they improperly embrace or overlap two different statutory classes of invention, namely, apparatus and process of using the apparatus, which statutory classes are set forth only in the alternative in 35 U.S.C. 101. Specifically, claim 1, lines 13-18; claim 2, lines 5-6; and claim 7, lines 6-7, are process of using the apparatus limitations.

Also claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, because they are directed to both an apparatus and a process of using the apparatus. As a result, the scope of the claims cannot be determined. See MPEP 2173.05(p)II.

Claims 8-10 are allowed.

The prior art made of record and not applied to the rejection is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. It is cited primarily to show inventions similar to the instant invention.
